

Sleepy Mouse® game trailer revealed!

New mobile game from Start Get Ready® due August 2016

London, UK 17th July 2016: The game trailer for Sleepy Mouse© has launched on YouTube, building anticipation for the little mouse who likes to sleep, loves his cheese, and hates to wake up hangry! Simple, fun and utterly addictive, Sleepy Mouse is a 2D, 75-level, physics based puzzle game due for release as an iOS app for both iPhone and iPad August 2016.

Aim of the game:

- Don't let Sleepy Mouse wake up hangry! Get him the cheese before he wakes!

Media Release

Game features:

- Holes in the wall, fridge magnets, alarms and traps will try to steal Sleepy Mouse's cheese
- Make friends with blue cheese if you don't want to leave Sleepy Mouse in a stink!
- Shot complexity maximises scores
- Incorporates Everyplay so you can record levels and show off scores to friends
- Uses Unity Ads so you can watch ads to skip levels and come back later

Sleepy Mouse uses simple touch screen controls with a pull back and aim mechanism on the cheese, challenging players to navigate obstacles before Sleepy Mouse wakes.

Sleepy Mouse will be free to play with no in-app purchases.
